MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the National Network to End Violence Against Immigrant Women enriches practice, case management, advocacy efforts and culturally competent government practices. Members learn from the expertise and experience of others, share knowledge and strategies, and participate in collaborative efforts to improve legal options and access to justice and services for immigrant survivors of violence.

Membership Benefits

Members of the Network may receive and access:

- Network updates and action alerts on the latest changes in laws, policies, and administrative issues affecting non-citizen survivors
- List Serves providing practice pointers on immigration, family law, benefits and access to legal, shelter, housing, and social services.
- Individual technical assistance that supports those providing services and assistance to immigrant survivors.
- Notification of regional and national trainings and conferences
- Training materials for advocates and attorneys
- Multilingual outreach materials for victims and survivors
- Educational materials for judges, prosecutors, law enforcement, and other justice system personnel
- Referrals to domestic violence attorneys, domestic violence and sexual assault service professionals, immigration practitioners, family law and benefits specialists in all US jurisdictions with experience working with immigrant survivors
- Intervention by Network liaisons with government decision makers to resolve problems

Membership Responsibilities

Network members must be willing to affirm the right of each person to live without fear or the threat of violence, including immigrant women and children. Members respond to requests for information and action alerts, inform the Network about problems immigrant survivors encounter in your communities (including but not limited to problems encountered in family courts, with benefits providers, in the justice system and accessing immigration relief).

Membership Fees

There are no membership fees, only the commitment to participate in the efforts of the Network of ending violence against immigrant women.
